

Panda Mobile Beta Launch Addendum And Waiver

Last updated: February 14th, 2024

Thank you for participating in the beta launch of Panda Mobile's mobile data plan (the "Plan"). This Plan is provided to you by Panda Mobile, and it is described in our Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy (collectively, the "Agreements").

Because you are participating in the beta launch, only certain features and functionality of the Plan and associated services are available to you. Notwithstanding that such features and functionality may be described in the Agreements, you acknowledge and agree that during the beta launch certain features and functionality of the Plan will NOT be available to you.

Panda Mobile will use the feedback collected during the beta launch to improve and enhance the Plan. However, it is important to understand that the beta version of the Plan is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis, with no warranties of any kind, either express or implied.

Furthermore, in consideration of your participation in the beta launch, you agree to specifically waive and disclaim any and all claims against Panda Mobile and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, and representatives relating to or arising from your participation in the beta launch. Nothing in this waiver and release of liability will operate to exclude liability relating to a specific claim to the extent a waiver or release is prohibited by applicable law or regulation or is attributable to the willful misconduct of any such person.

Panda Mobile will notify you upon the conclusion of the beta launch, at which time the full features and functionality as described in the Agreements will be available to you.

Except as modified herein, the Agreements will remain in effect and apply to you in accordance with their respective terms.

If you do not agree to this Addendum and Waiver, do not activate or use the services associated with the Plan. By activating, accessing, or using the services and by accepting this Addendum and Waiver electronically (for example, clicking "I Agree"), you acknowledge that you have read, understand, and agree to be bound by the terms of this Addendum and Waiver.
